QUARANTINE JOB IS AWARDED TO LORD-YOUNG

HARBOR NOTES

CHINA EXPECTS TO GET HERE SATURDAY

Removal of Old Wharf Must Be Finished By November 13; Contract Now Coming

Actual work tearing down the old quarantine wharf opposite the foot of Fort street, will be commenced by the Lord-Young Engineering Company within the next two weeks, and its removal will be completed by November 13, it was learned today.

The contract for removing the wharf structure and rebuilding it on a site several hundred yards makal of the present location has been awarded to the Lord-Young company, Chief Engineer Emil F. Cykler of the corporation said today, on being asked by the Star-Bulletin for verification of a report to this effect.

"We have been awarded the contract at our original bid of $29,647," said Cykler this morning. "We received notification September 13 by cable from Acting Supervising Architect Wetmore of the treasury department of the award, the cablegram saying the contract had been mailed to us in Washington on that date. It should get here on the Wilhelmina next Tuesday, and after we sign it we will start active work removing the wharf. Removal must be finished by November 13, 1916, and its reconstruction must be completed by March 13, 1917."

Cykler wired back to Washington asking that the specifications be changed to permit harbor dredging to be done to the mauka edge of the new site before reconstruction is started. The structure cannot be rebuilt until after this dredging is finished as the mauka side of the relocated wharf must adjoin deep water so vessels can be tied up along side it for quarantine purposes, and at present, the Standard American Dredging Company has a separate contract for dredging in the vicinity of the wharf.

The Lord-Young company was the lowest bidder when bids were opened several months ago, but its bid exceeded the congressional appropriation by several thousand dollars. Congress voted an additional $10,000 a few weeks ago, so the work would not be held up.

Arrival at Yokohama Sunday of the Pacific Mail liner Ecuador, from Honolulu September 4, is reported.

Thursday the Peruvian bark Bel-fast, here from Tocopilla September 1, is expected to sail for Puget Sound.

The Oceanic steamer Sierra is due to reach Pago-Pago today. She is scheduled to arrive here a week from today.

The Inter-Island steamer Wilele brought 9000 sacks of sugar, 100 head of cattle and sundries from Hawaii ports Monday.

The Matson steamer Lurline, due off port from San Francisco at 9 o'clock tonight, has 428 bags of mail from the mainland.

Next mail for San Francisco will leave tomorrow morning on the Matson liner Matsonia at 10 o'clock. Mails close at 8:30 a. m. at the postoffice.

The steam schooner Daisy Mathews will have her lumber cargo discharged about tomorrow night, and will probably take canned pine to the coast for Libby, McNeill & Libby.

At 5 o'clock this afternoon the Inter-Island steamer Kilauea will take the Mauna Loa's run to Kona and Kauai ports of Hawaii, while the Mauna Loa is handling the Claudine's run for a month.

Monday the Inter-Island steamer Mauna Kea went on drydock for cleaning and painting. She will steam for Hilo at 10 a. m. tomorrow, taking the Honolulu delegation to the civic convention and Hawaii County Fair.

Beginning Monday afternoon at 5 o'clock the Inter-Island steamer Mauna Loa has taken the Claudine's run to Maui ports for one month, while the Claudine is being overhauled, given minor repairs, cleaned and painted.

On a new schedule for this voyage only the T. K. K. steamer Selys Maru steamed from San Francisco Monday afternoon for Honolulu and Yokohama. She is four days later than under her old schedule, which she will resume on arrival at Hongkong. The steamer will arrive here September 28.

Sugar cargo of the American-Hawaiian steamer Florida will go to Delaware Breakwater direct, via the Panama canal, instead of being discharged.

Steamer Making Up Time at Great Rate; Hyades Will Arrive Thursday A. M.

Radio advices received this morning by the shipping department of H. Hackfeld & Company, Ltd., local agents for the China Mail from the steamer China, say she will arrive from Yokohama Saturday morning. This is somewhat surprising, as she left Yokohama September 14, one day late, and was not expected to come before Monday. Her schedule calls for her to arrive here Sunday morning. Instead of arriving late, she will come in a day ahead of time provided the radio is correct.

The local agents will get the ship away Saturday afternoon at the earliest possible hour. The China has only 100 tons of freight for this port, so it will not take long to discharge her cargo, even if the stevedores' strike is still on when she arrives.

A wireless received by Castle & Cooke's shipping department this morning from the Matson steamer Hyades says she will arrive from San Francisco Thursday morning, probably at daylight. She has a good-sized cargo for Honolulu, 4856 tons, and 1211 for Port Allen, Kauai. There are also 24 mules aboard.

Steaming at 10 a. m. tomorrow from Pier 15 for San Francisco, the Matson liner Matsonia will take between 180 and 190 cabin and 20 steerage passengers to San Francisco. Capt. Charles Peterson said this morning the strikebreakers loading her are making such good progress that he believes all her outgoing freight will be aboard by 5 o'clock this afternoon.

ed at San Francisco and transhipped overland. The Florida reached San Francisco Sunday. The Mexican, with 12,740 tons, was also diverted September 3. The Florida's cargo of island sugar is 9500 tons.

Women tourists who possess egret plumes and wish to keep them are advised not to take them when they go abroad. Collector of Customs Malcolm A. Franklin says that the laws prohibiting importation of wild-bird plume prevents Americans who take egret plumes out of the United States from bringing them back when they return. The only plumes which may be brought into the United States are of ostriches and domesticated fowl.

SEAMEN'S INSTITUTE WILL HOLD SOCIALS FOR SAILORS IN PORT

Beginning Friday night at 8 o'clock the Seamen's Institute, with the assistance of the Harbor Lights Guild, will give a series of weekly social evenings in the institute, lower Alakea street, for all sailors in port.

There will be games of various kinds, music, and entertainment numbers of an excellent character. Superintendent Charles F. Mant extends a cordial invitation to all seafaring men in Honolulu to attend the first social Friday evening.

DULLNESS IS PREVALENT IN STOCK MARKET

In the local stock market today Mineral Products was the only point about which interest centered. Extreme dullness settled over the market in listed securities. Sales between boards were of only 130 shares and at the session 150 changed hands. In bonds there was some interest displayed and $10,000 in Olaa 6s and $26,000 in Olaa 6s, the former at 102 and the latter at 110, appeared on the stock list. Olaa sold at 177 1/2, Olahu 23, Kahuku 21, Pioneer 40 1/2 and McBryde 11 1/2.

There were 10,027 shares of Mineral Products traded in before noon. All at Monday's closing price of $1. Oil was steady at $2.90 for 2500 shares and Engels Copper firm at $2.65, at which price 250 shares sold. Tipperary was weak, sales being recorded at 6 cents. Mountain King was quoted at 65 and 75 cents.
